"RECONSTRUCTION."

THE LOUISIANA CONVENTION

New Orleans Correspondence N. Y. World.

The Louisiana Reconstruction Convention holds its sessions in the Mechanics' Institute, known as the scene of the July riots. This building is a large, rambling structure of brick, on which workmen are now placing a fresh coat of stucco, the old one having been much pock-marked with bullets. Down stairs are the offices of state, and on the second floor, in a large room extending the full length of the edifice, unfortunate Louisiana is being ground in a Radical mill. This room, lit by 36 windows and flanked in its upper end by sepulchral committee rooms, also presents marks of conflict in sundry bullet holes bespattering the plaster on the walls. Above the platform, which is as large as an ordinary theatre stage and covered with a dismal carpet, hangs a torn and blood-stained flag, the same which figured in the riot. Beneath this flag sits the President of the Convention, of whom more hereafter, and to his right and left are pilloried that generation of vipers, the gentlemen of the press. Below press and President are other three desks, the left occupied by a mulatto sergeant at arms, the centre by a mulatto secretary, and the right by an unhappy and tribunish looking white clerk. Below the dais again extends the Convention, a body, as I now view it, of 85 members, whereof 38 are white and 47 citizens of African descent. Outside of the Convention proper extends a railing, the gate wherein is guarded by a large brown negro and a small black do., and on the outside again of this inclosure swarms the sovereign people. Item, a tall, ruddy faced, gray-haired white man with a hat as high as the younger Smallweed's; item, a jet black negro with no hat at all and his mouth wide open; item, a brown mulatto with a pipe; item, a creole with a cigarette, perched upon a chair and peacefully smoking; item, one of the colored troops who fought nobly; item, a "perfect," with a long blue coat and a silver crescent on the front of his black felt hat. And then, outside of the sovereigns, who, having no seats to occupy, crawl up each other's backs, like crabs in a basket, come ancient women and small boys who vend pecan nuts, puff pies, and ginger-bread.

With this birdseye view of the hall, let us look at the individual members of the convention. First comes the President, Judge J. G. Taliaferro, white, an ancient man who resembles in personal appearance old Sir Pitt Crawley in Vanity Fair. In politics, Mr. T. has been an unflinching and consistent Union man. He was a member of the Louisiana Secession Convention of '61, resisted to his utmost the action of that body, denounced the action, and for his general opposition was incarcerated for a while in Shreveport jail. Otherwise the judge is not particularly known. Being a very old man, and, as he stated in his opening address, not a very profound parliamentarian, he generally permits the convention to roar and howl about him as it will, peacefully dozing through the fury of debate. Next to president comes G. C. Antoine, negro; L. W. Baker, white; Jno. L. Barret, white; S. Belden, white; and A. Bertonean, mulatto, all entirely unknown. W. Jasper Blackburn, white, is a Northern man who edits the Homer Iliad, a little radical paper of intense bitterness published in Claiborne parish. O. C. Blandin is a New Orleans mulatto. Hyscinthe Benseigner is the same and chairman of a standing Committee—that on "contengeen expansas." Emile Bonnefoi is a mulatto. Wm. Brown is an unkown white. Dennis Burrel is a negro. William Butler is a negro. William H. Cooley is a white man; a district judge in Point Coupee, and Chairman of the standing committee on the new Constitution. He is not as radical as he was, and swears freely. W. R. Crane is a truly loyal man whose name appears subscribed to this oath: "I do solemnly swear that I am qualified according to the Constitution and laws of the State to vote. I will be faithful, and true allegiance bear to the State of Louisiana and the Confederate States of America, and that I will support, protect, and defend the Constitution of the State and the said Confederate States. So help me God. March 20, 1862." Some years prior to this the reconstructing Crane offered a resolution in the Louisiana Legislature to unseat Judah P. Benjamin, then United States Senator, because the said Judah was in favor of Mr. Clay's compromise measure, instead of being, as Sonle, Quitman, and the reconstructing Crane then were, for instantaneous secession. After Butler the beast came to this city, Mr. Crane became curator of the estates of persons sent beyond the line, and of registered enemies.—In personal appearance he is adust as to the face, orange tawny as to the beard, and stringy as to the neck, around which, without any intervention of a collar, is twisted a wispy black cravat. Thos. S. Crawford is a melancholy unknown young white man in blue steel specs; R. J. Cromwell is a negro doctor; Samuel E. Curry is a very black negro; Geo. W. Dearing, Jr., is a mulatto; A. J. Demarest is a white unknown; Chas. Depeswan is a mulatto; P. G. Deslonde, mulatto; Jos. Deslonde, mulatto; Auguste Donator, Jr., mulatto; David Douglas, mulatto; J. G. Drimkard, white, unknown; Gustavus Duparte, mulatto; Ulger Duparte, mulatto; C. B. H. Duplessis, white, unknown; J. B. Esnard, mulatto; G. W. Ferguson, white, unknown; John Gair, mulatto; R. G. Gardiner, a very black negro, temporary President of the Convention; Abraham N. Gould, negro; Leopold Guichard, mulatto; Peter Harper, Jno. S. Harris, Thos. P. Harrison, O. H. Hempstead, and W. H. Hiestand, all white and entirely unknown; J. H. Ingraham, mulatto, a cook in the Washington artillery during the war, and now chairman of the committee on bill of rights; P. H. Isabelle, mulatto; Thomas Isabelle, mulatto; Simon Jones, white; G. Y. Kelso, mulatto; J. H. Lander, white, wears a pale brimstone-colored vest and is Solon Shingle to a hair, otherwise unknown; Victor Lange, mulatto, Chas. Leroy, mulatto; J. B. Lewis, white; Richard Lewis, black; Jno. J. Ludwig, white a German, has good sense, but speaks English lowly; Jno. Lynch, white; "Give ye me wor'd of honor he has," said he the other day, sotto voce, in debate; and of such is Delegate Lynch; Frederick Maire, white; Thomas M. Martin, mulatto; J. A. Massicot, white; Wm. R. Meadows, white; Ben. McLean, white; W. L. McMillan, of Ohio, ex. U. S. A.; Milton Morris, a very black negro; S. E. Moses, still blacker; Wm. Munell, mulatto; James Mushaway, white; Theophyle Myers, mulatto; J. P. Newsham, white, ex-U. S. A.; Jos. C. Oliver, mulatto; S. B. Packard, white; Jno. Pierce, mulatto; P. B. S. Pinchbeck, mulatto, great friend of Banks, N. P.; Robert Poindexter, negro; Curtis Pollard, negro, black as jet; Geo. W. Regan, white, ex-U. S. A.; D. Reese, white; Fortune Riard, mulatto; D. D. Riggs, white; J. A. N. Roberts, mulatto; L. Rodriguez, mulatto; N. Schwab, white, German; Chas. Smith, white, Internal revenue assessor; Seathene Snaer, mulatto; Jno. Scott, negro; G. Saider, white; H. G. Steele, white; Chas. Thibaut, white; E. Twichant, mulatto; M. H. Twitchell, white, ex U. S. A.; Napoleon Underwood, white; P. F. Vallroit, negro; Jno. B. Vandergriff, white; Michael Vidal, white; Rufus Naples, white; G. M. Wickliffe, white, is a truly loyal man. In 1860, he edited a paper at Clinton, in this State, called The Spirit of the South, full of death to abolitionists, hang the abolitionist devils, whet the knife, prepare the fuel, etc., etc., in the very worst style of the fire-eating school. As before observed, he is now a truly loyal man. He looks, big black moustache, "hilang!" air and all, as though he has just dropped down out of the Bowery; and with two negroes, Williams and Wilson, closes the roll of this Convention.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.

THE VIRGINIA CONVENTION—SENATOR WILSON'S MISSION—NEGRO MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11, 1867.

The proceedings of the Negro Constitutional Convention in Richmond are now of absorbing interest to the Radical Reconstructionists, and every effort is being made by them to curb the wild African element in that body, and which is completely under the control of bad white men in the Convention. Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, having accepted a formal invitation to visit Richmond and advise with the "newly enfranchised," left last evening, declaring his purpose to prevent, if possible, any further public discussion of questions, as the meddling reporters would tell things just as they happened, and would render the proceedings of the Convention ridiculous and farcical, to the great mortification of "loyal men" North. And well may he anticipate mortification on the part of every decent man, North and South. In that Convention, clothed with power to frame the organic law of a people, he will find Hanover county, which gave birth to Clay and Patrick Henry, represented by an ignorant negro; the County of Charlotte, which contains the mortal remains of Henry and Randolph, represented by a negro; the county of Orange, where Presidents Madison and Taylor were born, represented by a negro; the county of Albermarle, the home of Jefferson, represented by a negro, and even old Charles City County, which gave birth to Presidents Harrison and Tyler, is also represented by an ignorant negro. In such a Convention Senator Wilson may feel proud to be, and take great delight in speaking and advising, but the spectacle in the eyes of the world will be a blot upon American civilization.

The Tract of Land on which the late Wm. F. Collins resided, at the time of his death, situated in Warren County, on the Williamsboro' Road, two (2) miles from Ridgeway Depot, on the R. & G. R. R., and adjoining the lands of Jno. E. Jones, B. M. Collins and others, containing

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO (172) ACRES.

On this Tract are situated the celebrated RIDGEWAY MILLS, which are not surpassed in the manufacture of flour by any in the State. The Mills are in first-rate running order.

There are on the premises a Dwelling House, the necessary out-houses, barns, stables, &c., for conducting a farm. The land is under good fences and in a high state of cultivation, about one-half the tract being in original woods, convenient to the House and Mill.

There is also a fine young Orchard of Apple and Peach trees, well selected, and several young vines of the Scuppernong Grape.

Persons wishing to purchase would do well to examine the property before the sale.

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Fayetteville, Wilmington, Columbia, Summerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

No insurance to pay on produce over this Inland Fast Line. Mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

FOREIGN IMMIGRATION.

We desire to see the time when the lands of the South shall be worked by skilled labor and in the spirit of modern energy and enterprise. The day has passed by, we believe, forever, for large plantations in the South, operated by one proprietor and worked by large gangs of laborers. This would not and could not be remunerative, even under the most favorable circumstances, with hired labor. Small farms, worked skillfully with the improved implements, and highly manured, we have no doubt, is the true policy for Southern land holders.

This policy, we think, can be better inaugurated, by the labor of the South, if it can be reduced to proper system, and if it can be relied upon. The experience of the past two years has been unfavorable to this test. Colored laborers have, in many instances, proved themselves to be inefficient as hirelings. Even where lands have been rented to them, and in those instances where they have made contracts to work for a fair portion of the crop, failure has been the result, both on account of their lack of industry and perseverance, as well as the unpropitiousness of the seasons.—This state of things has rendered many planters both unable and unwilling to risk a further trial, to any great extent, on the plans of the past two years.

Under the blind and injurious teachings of Radical emissaries and native whites and blacks, by which the minds of the colored laborers have been distracted, labor has become demoralized—many have been led to lay aside or forego the benefits of industry and systematic work, in the vain hope that the attainment of higher civil and political rights or privileges will abundantly supply the lack of food and clothing which their own labor ought to furnish; and hence many are without bread and meat for the next year. Planters, consequently, have little encouragement either to hire them as laborers or to rent lands to them.

This state of things has excited an anxiety to supply this lack of labor by foreign immigration. Emigration companies, and individual enterprises to make money, are establishing agencies to furnish German and other foreign emigrant laborers to Southern planters, per order. We observe that a Mr. P. Bontfort, a German, has established an Emigration office in New York, and proposes to supply laborers at $5 a piece, to be employed on Southern farms at $15 per month, and females and children at less price,—the planter to pay the passage of the emigrant to Wilmington, (to cost about $10,) to be refunded by the laborer.

We have made some enquiries upon this subject, and deem it proper to make some suggestions. We have been assured, by those who have investigated this subject, that Emigration Companies, or individual enterprises formed for this object, are very poor reliances for obtaining the class of emigrants most desired in the South.—Thousands of emigrants, who come to our shores, are wholly unsuited for farming operations in the South. They constitute a class of society in Europe not desired at home, and who would be no acquisition to society in the South. Emigration societies to bring labor to the South should be formed in the South, and the emigrants employed should be such as are induced to come by our own Agents, who understand all about our wants, our climate, lands, food, &c., and would not simply look to the supply of farm laborers, but the securing of those emigrants who would likely make good permanent citizens.

What is needed, among foreign or Northern emigrants in the South, are families, brought up to farm life, who understand agriculture, who have some means of their own to purchase small farms or rent them, and who have sufficient intelligence to adapt themselves to the new state of things.

The idea of introducing common foreign laborers, who are to take simply the places of the colored laborer and subject themselves to the same food, shelter, &c., to which the colored laborer has been trained, will prove a failure. To make them permanent working people in the South, they must bring their families with them, and their food, clothing and shelter must be such as they have been used to in their own country. Negroes will thrive and increase on corn-bread, pork and peas, with coarse thick clothing and common shelter, but such a mode of living would exterminate, in a year, a whole cargo of foreign emigrants,—especially in our low, rich lands, subject to malaria and bilious disorders.

We learn that it is the opinion of a late eminent Confederate Surgeon, that the excessive mortality of the Federal prisoners at Salisbury, Andersonville, and other points, during the war, was more owing to the corn bread and other articles of food, which the prisoners were not used to, than to the excessive scarcity. Colored people, raised upon the same kind of diet, would have lived, while Northern men and foreigners, who had been raised upon wheat and rye bread, would sink under the change of diet.

The introduction of Northern or foreign emigrants into the South, we judge, therefore, can only be expected to be successful when suitable arrangements are made for their accommodation.

In view of the rapid progress of Conservatism, and the decay of Radicalism, in New England, it has been suggested that the Democrats and Conservatives should hold their National nominating Convention in Boston.

THE VIRGINIA CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

In all respects, the late Conservative Convention in Richmond was one of the most remarkable bodies that ever assembled in that or any other State. In point of numbers and character, it was worthy of Virginia in its palmiest days. The descendants of the men, who illustrated its annals in the olden time, and many of those who, in later years, have given it name and fame, were there, to consult for the honor of the State and the interests of Constitutional freedom. The moral of such a scene,—especially when contrasted with that presented by the other Convention of ignorant negroes and degraded adventurers, in the Capitol,—cannot fail to impress the Northern mind.

These two Conventions, in fact, are representative bodies, and their respective constituent elements are in precise keeping with the character of the masses which delegated them. The spontaneous Convention was the exponent of the decent, reputable, law abiding sentiment of Virginia,—of the men and their descendants who have made the name of the Old Dominion historic,—of the thousands of white men, women and children, in the State, who love the land of their nativity, and who have made it famous the world over for devotion to civil liberty, for hospitality, and for all generous and ennobling qualities. The Convention of force, ordered by Congress, with which the whole people of Virginia, as a general rule, would have nothing to do, is the fit mouth piece of ignorance and malevolence, of bad passions and worse principles, of unscrupulous adventurers and abandoned demagogues. We are glad that the men of Virginia met in council at such a time. We are glad that the opportunity has been afforded the country of witnessing the contrast which has been presented. And we shall look, with unusual interest, to see the address to the people of the United States, which is to emanate from the very able and distinguished Committee appointed to prepare one.

THE "REBEL" MOVEMENT.

The proposition to organise the Conservatives of North Carolina,—a movement which is becoming universal among the white people of the whole South,—is stigmatized by the Disunion Radical presses as a "rebel" movement. In what respects is it "rebellious"? The movement is the work of the very best Union men of the State, as well as of all those, whatever may have been their political sentiments, who submit to the results of the war, and who ask for the fulfilment of the pledges of the government, during and after the close of the war. Those pledges recognised the Constitution of the United States as the basis of the settlement of the difficulties between the people of the two sections. The Conservatives of the South ask for no other terms—no other basis of settlement—than the Constitution, to which the government stands pledged.

Radical reconstruction is an after-thought, originating in no repetition of offenses on the part of the Southern people, in no evidences of disloyalty or contumacy on the part of the Southern people, (for it cannot be truthfully denied that the Southern people submitted in good faith to all the disabilities and injuries imposed upon them by the government,) but in the hatred and opposition engendered in the Radical party to President Johnson. But what had the Southern people to do with their quarrels?

The Conservatives of this State are not "rebels." They are devoted to the Union and the Constitution. They prove their fealty to the government, by rendering it all due obedience, and by their opposition to Radicalism, which is but a wicked attempt to overthrow the government and to remodel it on principles antagonistic to the institutions of our fathers.

THE CALL FOR THE NATIONAL "REPUBLICAN" CONVENTION.—The following is the call of the Executive Committee, recently in session at Washington, for the Convention, which is to assemble at Chicago, on the 20th of May:

"The undersigned constituting the national committee designated by the committee held at Baltimore on the 7th of June, 1864, do appoint that a national convention of the Union Republican party be held at the city of Chicago, Illinois, on Wednesday, the 20th of May next, at twelve o'clock, M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States. Each State of the United States is authorized to be represented in said convention by the number of delegates equal to twice the number of Senators and Representatives to which each State is entitled in the National Congress. We invite the co-operation of all citizens who rejoice that our great civil war has happily terminated in the discomfiture of rebellion; who would hold fast the unity and integrity of the Republic, and maintain its paramount right to defend to its utmost its own existence, whether imperilled by secret conspiracy or armed force; who are in favor of an economical administration of the public expenditures, of the complete extirpation of the principles and policy of slavery, and of the speedy re-organization of those States whose governments were destroyed by the rebellion, and their permanent restoration to their proper practical relations with the United States, in accordance with the true principles of republican government."

Viewing the matter from the Radical stand-point, we take it that the "faithful" in the South are not asked to participate in the Convention. Only those States are invited, which are "entitled" to Senators and Representives in Congress. Are the managers apprehensive that the mongrel representatives from the South, if allowed to be present and to vote, might force, perchance, a negro nominee for the Vice-Presidency upon the party?

The call omits, in its recapitulation of the guiding principles of the party, the faintest allusion to negro-suffrage. So much for the "re-action" at the North. We should not be surprised if the Convention itself, in the face of the recent popular verdict, should be equally as reticent and tender footed, especially if Grant is to receive the nomination. It seems to be very generally understood that he is unwilling to ride the "woolly-horse."

HORACE GREELY AND THE TRIBUNE.

It is difficult to tell whether Greely is responsible for the Tribune, or the Tribune for Greely. The two are very little alike, or both are very inconsistent. Greely professes to stand upon the platform of "universal suffrage and universal amnesty," yet the Tribune endorses the most bald and violent phases of Radicalism in the late action of the Alabama Radical Convention. That body refused to pass an ordinance prohibiting the intermarriage of whites and blacks, yet the Tribune approves.

That Convention refused to pass an ordinance prohibiting the mixing of the races in the schools, yet the Tribune endorses it, because the matter is left to the Education Board. The Convention did not, in so many words, confiscate property, yet it leaves such power of taxation in the hands of a Radical Legislature, as would be as bad as confiscation. It does not disfranchise, in so many words, more persons than are disfranchised by the Congress, yet, if we remember correctly, it prescribes such a form of oath for voters upon the ratification of the Constitution, as would disfranchise every decent white man in the State; yet the Tribune approves.

There are many ways to kill a dog, "without choking him with butter." The Radicals of the Tribune school profess to be moderate, humane, kind and just, yet their schemes are as destructive to Anglo Saxon liberty, and to the control of the white race in the South, as the most violent and bitter Radical would have it.

Southern white loyalists are more to be dreaded, are less considerate of the claims of the white race, than most of the blacks themselves. Our Southern people have really less to dread from the great body of the blacks themselves, than from the pretended Union Radicals, made up of whites, who, generally, have no character, whether they are Northern or Southern men. Incapable of magnanimous impulses, greedy of position and place, to which their life-long standing does not entitle them, they are ready to sacrifice the substantial interests of the people of the South, for their own aggrandizement and profit.

STATE ITEMS.

——Mr. J. A. Haskell, of Jones County, while on his way to Newbern, on Thursday, was fired on from an ambuscade, but, fortunately, was not struck. Suspicion points to a negro, whom Mr. H. had discharged from his employment for a theft.

——The new Episcopal Church in Tarboro was dedicated, on Sunday of last week.

——A negro grand juror in Union county stole his employer's pocket book, containing $45, in less than one week after the Court adjourned.

——The following gentlemen have been appointed delegates from New Hanover to the Conservative State Convention, when held:

Henry Nutt, William A. Wright, James G. Burr, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Joseph A. Engelhard, R. H. Cowan, D. B. Baker, W. S. Devane, E. D. Hall, H. VonGlahn, S. J. Person, Robert Strange, Alex. Adrian, O. G. Parsley, Joel L. Moore, Sol. S. Satchwell, Owen Fennell, Sr., Charles W. McClammy, James S. Hines, H. F. Murphy, J. D. Powers, Dr. J. F. Simpson, Dr. J. A. Miller, A. E. Hall, Edmund A. Hawes, Col. J. W. Atkinson, James C. Stevenson.

——A correspondent of the Wilmington Journal writes that Mr. Jasper Etheridge, the member of the Convention elect from Onslow, who has been classed as a Radical, was elected as an opponent of universal negro suffrage and is a Conservative.

——Samuel Simpson, a negro, has been arrested in Craven, on the charge of attempting to commit an outrage on a white lady at Swift Creek. He was committed to Newbern jail.

—— Wilmington is afflicted just as Raleigh is. A few men in that city, also, who desire to make their "loyalty" remunerative, have petitioned Gen. Canby to take such steps as will prevent the present Mayor and Aldermen from holding over.

From the National Intelligencer.

SIGNIFICANT.

The New York Evening Post of yesterday has the following significant statement in its dispatches from Washington:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.

At the present time there is a feeling among many leading Republicans here that the Freedmen's Bureau can safely be abolished without placing the lives of the freedmen in jeopardy throughout the South.—With a view to ascertain whether or not this would meet the approbation of leading loyalists in the Southern States, Mr. T. D. Eliot, chairman of the House Committee on Freedmen's Affairs, has been in extensive correspondence with persons in nearly all the rebellious States, and the result is, that the opinion is almost unanimous in favor of continuing the Bureau.

"Many of these writers do not hesitate to say that such a movement now would effectually defeat reconstruction in many States, as it is only by knowing that the officers of the Government stand ready to protect them, if any outrage is offered, that many blacks and whites who stood loyal throughout the rebellion, and who are members of the Conventions to frame new State Constitutions, dare to attend the sessions of those bodies.

In view of all these facts, it seems probable that when the Committee report to the House they will recommend the continuance of the Bureau until the Southern States are admitted to representation in Congress."

This exposes the fraudulent purpose of the maintainance of the Freedmen's Bureau, at an immence cost to the taxpayers of the Northern and Western States. For nearly three years and a half the people have been compelled to contribute millions of dollars annually for the support of the institution. They were appealed to upon the plea of charity towards the emancipated negroes.—For nearly three years this vast body of negroes in the South have been public pensioners, supported through this Bureau in idleness, thriftlessness and crime. Now the mask is thrown off, and the unblushing acknowledgment is made that the continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau is necessary, not to benefit the emancipated negroes, but to insure the success of the infamous Radical scheme of Africanizing the Southern States, under the name of reconstruction. In other words, the Bureau must be kept in operation to prevent the Radical revolutionists, who have been repudiated in every Northern State, from losing, also, the control of the ten tyrant-trodden Southern States.

From the Wilmington Journal.

GRAPE, FRUIT AND VEGETABLE GROWING.

Editor of the Journal, Wilmington:

GENTLEMEN:—The subject of Grape, Fruit and Vegetable growing is now attracting the attention of our people to a considerable extent. Yet not half the interest is taken in the subject that its importance demands.

With the desire to benefit our people, as well as to increase the business of this line of Railway, I propose to collect such information as can readily be had and give it to the public, either in your columns or in the form of a circular, or both.

I will briefly state, here, that the climate of Wilmington, and vicinity, will produce "garden truck," or vegetables, about two weeks earlier than they can be grown at Portsmouth, Va. With this advantage in "time," or of "early production," and with the great facilities for transportation that our section possesses, our small farmers may absolutely "coin money" if they will inform themselves upon the subject.

The fruits—apples, peaches, grapes and, not least, strawberries—are equally profitable in Northern markets.

The article of Cucumbers has been sold (last year) as high as $45 a barrel. Early Peas, Tomatoes and Irish Potatoes will sell at higher prices if in market before they come in from the Northern farms. Sweet Potatoes and Cranberries put up in barrels will sell at prices that will justify their production.

The wild fruits—(Blackberries, Huckleberries and the like, dried,)—will pay handsomely to the gatherers and those who prepare them for market.

Lands that are adapted to the growth of Grapes and Peaches should be immediately planted with vines and trees all along the line of this road, (and such lands are everywhere found in great abundance,) and in four or five years North Carolina will exceed New Jersey in the fruit culture and production.

How large an income can be obtained from the capital invested is a matter that will astonish those who have not given the subject much thought.

As soon as the proper information can be obtained, I will give you the facts.

Suffice it to say here, that no time should be lost by small, as well as large, farmers in preparing their lands for early vegetables: Cucumbers, Irish Potatoes, Peas, Beets and Tomatoes.

The planting of Grape vine and Peach trees are all important. They can be had from Delaware and New Jersey in abundance.

Respectfully yours,
S. L. FREMONT.

[We would suggest that grape-vines and peach trees can be also obtained in abundance from Westbrooks & Co., of Guilford, and other nurseries in the State.—Sentinel.]

THE DIFFERENCE.—The New Orleans Republican, tar-and-turpentine organ, says:

"Gen. Sheridan, with all his brilliant military reputation, ignominiously failed in his civil administration of this district. Sheridan left Louisiana without having made friends among the loyal or disloyal."

That is what is said of the sun that has gone down. He welcomes Gen. Hancock, the sun newly risen, with a column of fulsome eulogy, in which occurs this: "Hancock arrives here with acclamations of both loyal and disloyal following him to headquarters."

At the Grant meeting in New York, Wednesday evening, Gen. Sickles made a speech from the report of which the following is extracted:

"Now, when these brave men desire employment, the claims of politicians are considered before theirs. I tried for eight days to get a soldier who had lost two fingers in the war employment on the new court-house in the park. (Laughter.) I went from supervisor to foreman, from foreman to alderman, and finally got down to a councilman, and then I gave it up. (Great laughter.)—But not one of them failed to express a great deal of regret that I had been such a fool as to get lame in such an internal war."

The trip of Dickens to this country will, it is expected, make $200,000 for him. He made $20,000 at Boston. He is at present engaged upon three new stories, one of which is to be published in the Atlantic.

Notice.

I WILL RENT OR LEASE, for a term of years, my Bucklesbury estate, in the County of Bertie, North Carolina, and will sell or include in the arrangement the entire plough teams, farming implements, and the provisions now on hand.—The estate consists of some

THREE THOUSAND ACRES,

One-fourth of which is now prepared for successful farming operations, and is indisputably the most valuable in North Carolina. It was the pet farm of the late Cullen Capehart, who took special pains to bring it into cultivation. It was originally a winter lake, and Mr. Capehart, by two parallel twenty feet canals, had it perfectly dry, and now there is not a mire, swamp, branch, or damp place upon the entire estate. In one of the canals there is a bold and sparkling mineral spring of active medicinal properties. It is proverbially healthy. There has been but two deaths upon it for twenty years or more, one an old man from the infirmities of nature, the other an infant from whooping cough.

I invite an examination of the place, and take this occasion to say that I am prepared to offer inducements to a young and energetic individual, of rare occurrence

Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the South Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 300 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular saw, run by a Jouvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed.—There is also a train road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary outhouses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.

The water on the place is excellent, and it is one of the healthiest locations in the low country.

TERMS OF SALE:

One hundred and fifty dollars cash; four thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the 4th Monday in March, 1868, and notes at six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest. For the balance, bonds with approved security will be required, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid. Possession given on the first day of February, 1868.

From Physicians,

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[an humor reached the large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room one three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer of fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. Tortified so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being indneed to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deep seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your R

The Spring Term of Wake Forest College will commence on the 20th. prox. We are glad to learn that the prospects of this excellent Institution are flattering. It has sent out many good and useful men from its walls, and we rejoice at every indication of its success.

Thos. Goode Tucker, of Caswell, will rent, or lease for a term of years, a valuable estate in Bertie, and will sell, or include in the arrangement, the teams, implements, provisions, &c., on hand.

Cygnet Chewing Tobacco, Family Flour, Meal, Potatoes, Apples, Cheese, Malaga Grapes, and everything else that is nice: W. Rohn, Andrews, Family Grocer, Fayetteville Street.

THE UNIVERSITY.—The Board of Trustees of the University will convene at the Executive office, in this city, to-morrow.—We trust that there may be a full attendance, and that the Board will deliberate cautiously and considerately upon the important matters affecting the interests and even the continued existence of the Institution, which are to come before it.

A TIMELY INVOCATION.—Passing up the street, a few evenings since, we heard the Crier of our Superior Court, now in session, announcing, with stentorian voice, from the open window of the Court House, according to the prescribed form, the adjournment of the Court until the ensuing morning. The concluding words, "God save the State and this Honorable Court," rang out on the still night air with sonorous emphasis,—echoing and re-echoing along the streets and lanes. We thought we had never heard a more timely and appropriate invocation, and the formal triteness of the phrase was invested with more than ordinary solemnity. The State, threatened with ruin by its enemies, and the Courts, with their ignorant and incapable juries, need the intercession of a Higher Power in their behalf.

THAT "NEW BOARD."—We are pleased to learn that many of the more respectable portion of the colored people of the city positively refuse to sign a petition to Gen. Canby, asking for the municipal appointments recommended by the recent Radical meeting in this city. They say that they cannot go the "mess."

STATE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.—We hope the Conservatives in every County of the State, who have not done so, will call meetings and appoint delegates to the State Conservative Convention, to be called by the State Executive Committee, at an early day.

At the same time, let them be sure to appoint a strong Executive Committee for each County. The Conservatives of Wake and New Hanover have done this, but in some of the Counties it has been omitted.

When the State Conservative Convention is called, let our strongest, wisest and best men be sent to it. Great patriotism and great wisdom are necessary in this crisis.

TRUE, FOR ONCE.—We understand that the Radical paper in this City charges the Editors of the Sentinel with having expressed a preference for a negro candidate for Congress. That is so, under certain circumstances. If Radical reconstruction prevails, we are for Booker Hutchings against the field, and six others "of the same sort" from the remaining Congressional Districts. We vastly prefer voting for such to having a similar number of men with white skins, who consider themselves the equals of the negro race.

CORRECTION.—The next Term of Kittrell's Springs Female College will commence on the second Wednesday of February, instead of the third, as heretofore erroneously announced.

"DOCTOR EDDY."—The Norfolk Day Book says that this "learned African physician," who figured in the late Radical meeting in this city, among the other lights of the occasion, was compelled to leave Norfolk very mysteriously,—having been threatened with a coat of tar and feathers by his own people for his impositions.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Life Insurance continues to occupy the most serious consideration of the heads of families, who, by the casualties of war, short crops and short price of Cotton, have been deprived of the support they relied upon, in case of death, for their dependents; and the question with them is, "Which is the OLDEST, SAFEST, LARGEST, MOST ECONOMICAL and RELIABLE COMPANY represented in North Carolina?" I unhesitatingly assure them that I have indisputable evidence that the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Co. is, without doubt, prepared to prove, from the most trustworthy and authentic official reports, that she has a larger amount of assets than all other Companies in this State combined; that for eighteen years she has declared an average of fifty per cent dividend; for thirteen years her interest on investment has exceeded her losses; and her vast business is conducted at a much less expense.

All she makes is shared by the assured. No Stockholder receives the lion's share of the profits, and no Company pays its losses more promptly. Last year (1866) she paid to widows and orphans upwards of a Million of Dollars. Therefore, apply at once to P. F. PESCUD, Agt.,

"OLD THAD" POW-WOWS WITH THE MONOREES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14—P. M.

A seized delgation from Virginia, North and South Carolina visited Thad. Stevens yesterday. The following is elicited:

Stevens said that he regarded the Impeachment failure as an evidence of the fickleness of public opinion.

A Virginia delegate said that it would work seriously against re-construction.

Stevens thought it could not fail to do otherwise, and mutual regrets were exchanged.

A North Carolina negro, named Harris, said they would get along very well. Northern whites were more frightened about negro-suffrage than Southern whites. Mr. Holden was the 'life-blood of the Republican party of North Carolina." ("I'm a sake!")

A Virginia delegate represented the condition as critical. Unless Congress came to the relief, the sufferings of the colored people and white Unionists would be terrible.

"Thad" favored the repeal of the clause requiring a majority of registered voters. The delegation thought that would do, but suggested a law empowering the Conventions to establish Provisional governments. Then, if the Constitutions were rejected, they would have, at least, "loil" officers.

Stevens had drawn up a bill with two or three beneficial provisions. One was to permit a majority of voters to affirm or reject Constitutions; and another that the Conventions shall, as independent bodies, establish governments in lieu of the military, as soon as the Constitutions were ready for submission to Congress, (i. e. after ratification by the majority aforesaid.)

The delegation approved this.

Stevens enquired whether the old masters would be able to seduce the negroes from voting properly.

Harris replied that the negroes were dependent on the old masters for daily bread; there was, therefore, danger; but he hoped the negroes were capable of enduring great privations.

A Virginia negro said Harris' remarks applied to his District, where 800 had lost their places.

Stevens hoped the Southern vote would be cast for the Radical party. This would elect a Republican President and assure triumphant (Radical) reconstruction.

(Exeunt omnes.)

NEGRO RIOT IN GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 14, P. M.

The Republican reports that a collision occurred between a party of negroes and the civil authorities at Elbertow, in which the Sheriff, George Allen, was killed, and several others, white and black, wounded.

The difficulty originated at a ball. Three negroes, implicated in the riot, have been arrested.

BANK STATEMENT.

The Bank statement shows a decrease in loans of $1,122,539; of specie $917,406. Increase of circulation $26,700; of deposits $2,117,895; of legal tenders $2,358,850. Balance in Sub-Treasury $105,652,607.

AN EDITOR IN TROUBLE.

SAVANNAH, Dec. 14—P. M.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION—THE "COLD SNAP."

RICHMOND, Dec. 14—P. M.

Resolutions were offered to incorporate in the bill of rights a clause, declaring all test oaths diametrically opposed to the principle of Republican liberty; to establish a system of schools for the education of all classes; to allow naturalized foreigners to hold property after one year's residence and to be eligible to the State offices after three years residence in the State; to abolish capital and corporeal punishment for crime; to enfranchise all persons from whom it is in the power of the Convention to remove the existing disabilities.

A resolution declaring old debts, contracted since January 1860, in the purchase of slaves, null, was referred.

The Chairman of the Finance Committee introduced a resolution, requesting the Auditor and Treasurer to suspend the payment of the interest on the State debt. Referred to the Committee of Finance.

The resolution and amendment, relative to the intimidation of voters, came up. The Convention appeared determined not to go into political debates, and, as a very long one had already taken place on the same resolution, the previous question was sustained, 62 to 25, and the matter was referred.

The weather is excessively cold. A man froze to death in the suburbs of the city last night.

THE GOLDEN SIDE.

BY MRS. M. A. KIDDER.

There is many a rent in the grad of life,
If we only would stop to take it;
And many a tone from the better land,
If the quarulous heart would make it!
To the sunny soul, that is full of hope,
And whose beautiful trust is'nt faileth,
Th' grass is green and the flowers are bright,
Though the wintry storm prevails th

Better to hope though the clouds hang low,
And to keep the eyes still lifted;
For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through,
When the ominous clouds are rifted!
There was never a night without a day,
Or an evening without a morning;
And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes,
Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life,
Which we pass in our idle pleasures,
That is richer far than the jeweled crown
Or the miser's hoarded treasure;
It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayers to heaven,
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life
A bright and a golden filling,
And to do God's will with a ready heart,
And hands that are swift and willing,
Than to snap the delicate minute threads
Of our curious lives asunder;
And then blame Heaven for the tangled ends,
And sit and grieve and wonder.

JOY IN THE HOUSE OF WARD.

Dear Sirs: I take my pen in hand to inform you that I am in a state of great bliss, and trust these lines will find you injoyin the same blessins. I'm regurvinated. I've found the immortal waters of yooth, so to speak, and am as limber and frisky as a two year old steer, and in the future them boys which set to me "go up, old Bawld head," will do so at the peril of their hazard individooly. I'm very happy. My house is full of joy, and I have to git up nights and larf! Sumtimes I ax myself "Is it not a dream?" & suthin withinto me sez "it air;" but when I look at them sweet little critters and hear 'um squeak, I know it is a reality—2 realitys, I may say—and I feel gay.

I returned from the Summer Campane with my unparalleled show of wax works and livin wild Beests of Pray in the early part of this month. The people of Baldinsville met me cordully, and I immejitly commenst resting myself with my famerly.—The other nite while I was down to the tavurn tootin my shins again the bar room fire & amusin the krowd with sum of my adventars, who shood cum in bare heded and terrible excited but Bill Stokes, who sez, sez he, "Old Ward, there's grate doins up to your house."

Sez I, "William, how so?"

Sez he, "Bust my gizzud, but it is grate doins," & then he larfed as if he'd kill hisself.

Sez I, rising an puttin on a auster look, "William, I wooldunt be a fool if I had common cents."

But he kept on larfin til he was black in the face, when he fell over on to the bunk where the hostler sleeps, and in a stiff small voice sed, "Twins!" I ashure you gents that the grass didn't grow under my feet on my way home, & I was followed by a enthoosiastic throng of my feller sitterzens, who hurrard for old Ward at the top of their voices. I found the house chock full of peple. There was Mis Square Baxter and her three grown up darters, lawyer Perkinses wife, Taberthy Ripley, young Eben Parsuns, Deakun Simmuns folks, the Skoolmaster, Doctor Jordin, etcetterry.—Mis Ward was in the west room which jines the kitchin. Mis Square Baxter was mixin suthin in a dipper before the kitchin fire & a small army of female wimin were rushin wildly round the house with bottles of camfire, peices of flannil, &c. I never seed such a hubub in my natrul born dase. I cood not stay in the west room only a minit, so strung up was my feelins, so I rushit out and cosed my dubbel barrild gun.

"What upon airth sies the man?" sed Taberthy Ripley. "Sake alive, what air you doin?" and she grabd me by the coat tales. "What's the matter with you?" she continerd.

"Twins, marm," sez I, "(wins!"

"I know it," sez she, coverin her pretty face with her apun.

"Well," sez I, "that's what's the matter with me!"

"Well, put down that air gun, you pesky old fool," sed she.

"No, mam," sed I, "this is a Nashunal day. The glory of this here day isn't confined to Baldensville by a darn site. On yonder woodshed," sed I, drawin myself up to my full hite and speakin in a show actin voice, "will I fire a Nashunal saloot!" sayin which I tared myself from her grasp and rusht to the top of the shed where I blazed away until Square Baxter's hired man and my son Artemus Juneyer cum and took me down by mane force.

On returnin to the Kitchin I found quite a lot of people seated be4 the fire, talkin the event over. They made room for me & I sot down. "Quite a episode," sed Doctor Jordin, litin his pipe with a red hot coal.

"Yes," sed I, "2 episodes, waying abowt 18 pounds jintly."

"A perfeck coop de tat," said the skoolmaster.

"E pluribus unum, in proprietor per sony," sed I, thinking I'd let him know I understood furrin langwidges as well as he did, if I wasn't a skoolmaster.

"It is indeed a momentious event," said young Eben Parsuns, who has been 2 quarters to the Akademy.

"I never heard twins called by that name afore," sed I, "but I spose it's all rite."

"We shall soon have Wards enuff," said the editer of the Baldinsville Bugle of Liberty, who was lookin over a bundle of exchange papers in the corner, "to apply to the legislater for a City Charter!"

"Good for you, old man!" said I, "giv that air a conspickius place in the next Bugle."

"How ridickulus," sed pretty Susan Pletcher, coverin her face with her knittin work & larfin like all possest.

"Wall, for my part," sed Jane Maria Peasley who is the crossest old maide in the world, "I think you all act like a pack of fools."

Sez I, "Mis Peasely, air you a parent?"

Sez she, "No, I aint."

Sez I, "Mis Peasley, you never will be." She left.

We sot there talkin & larfin until "the witchin hour of nite, when grave yards yawn & goats troop 4th," as old Bill Shakespire aptlee observes in his dramy of John Sheppard, esq., or the Moral house Breaker, when we broke up & disbursed.

Mother & children is a doin' well; & as Resolushuns is the order of the Day I will feel obleeged if you'll insurt the follerin:

Whereas, two Eppisodes has happined up to the undersined's house, which is Twins; & Whereas I like this stile, nade twins being of the male perswashun & both boys; therefd Be it

Resolved, that to them nabers who did the fare thing by said Eppisodes my hartfelt thanks is doo.

Resolved, that I do most hartily thank Engine Ko. 17, who, under the impreshun from the fuss at my house on that auspichius nite that there was a konflagration goin on, rum gallantly to the spot, but kindly refrained from squirtin.

Resolved, that from the Bottom of my Sole do I thank the Baldinsville brass band for given up the idea of Parahnadin me, both on that great nite & since.

Resolved, that my thanks is doo several members of the Pandemonium house who fur 3 whole dase hain't kalled me a sinful skeller or entreated me to mend my wicked wase and jine said meetin house to onct.

Resolved, that my Bozzum teams with many kind emotshuns toward the follerin individoodals to whit:—Mis Square Baxter, who Jenerously refoosed to take a sent for a bottle of camfire; lawyer Perkinses wife who rit sum versis on the eppisodes; the Editer of the Baldinsville Bugle of Liberty who nobly assisted me in wollupin my Kangeroo, which sagashus little cuss seriusly disturbed the Episodes by his outrajus screetchins and kickins up; Mis Hirum Doolittle, who kindly furnisht sum cold vittles at a trying time, when it was not konvenient to cook vittles at my house; and the Peasleys, Parsuns & Watsuns fur there meny ax of kindness.
